

Royal Isabela Names Robin Donenberg As General Manager

ISABELA, Puerto Rico – May 21, 2013 – Royal Isabela, the world-class golf and private membership club perched on the dramatic bluffs within the 1,800-acre Costa Isabela community on the northwest coast of Puerto Rico, has named Robin Donenberg as its general manager.

Donenberg joins Royal Isabela after serving as general manager of Villa Montana Beach Resort, a four-star property also located in Isabela. During his two-year tenure at Villa Montana, the resort recognized an increase of $1.5 million in room revenues, and was honored with awards of excellence from both TripAdvisor and Fodor's Travel Guides.

Donenberg's hospitality industry experience also includes serving as general manager of FEDICS at the GrandWest Hotel Casino in Cape Town, South Africa; director of operations at Holiday Inn San Juan, Puerto Rico; and owner/general manager of Kudeta Restaurant and Ku Lounge in Old San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Donenberg is a native of South Africa, a seasoned world traveler and speaks four languages. He has continued his education in Executive Leadership and Strategic Thinking Studies through eCornell University.

Located 90 minutes from San Juan International Airport and just 20 minutes from Aguadilla International Airport, Royal Isabela stretches along 426 oceanfront acres with cliffs that range in elevation from 150 to 350 feet above sea level. The founders are Stanley Pasarell, President, and Charles Pasarell, both descendants of Dr. Manuel Zeno Gandia, a celebrated Puerto Rican literary figure.
