Description: On a stunning, world-class site on the east coast of Mexico's Baja Peninsula near the historic town of Loreto, Rees Jones has crafted a brilliant multi-themed golf course accented by valleys, arroyos, dunes and foothills. Holes feature panoramic views of Danzante Bay, the Sea of Cortes, the Islands of Loreto and the Sierra de la Giganta mountain range. The golf course, with 11 holes currently open and the remainder to debut in October 2017, serves as a prime amenity for guests and homeowners at Villa del Palmar Beach Resort & Spa, a full-service destination resort community.

General Manager: Sixto Navarro (sixto.navarro@vgloreto.com)

Director of Golf: Danny Garcia (danny.garci@vgloreto.com)

Grasses: Greens, tees and fairways are SeaDwarf Paspalum; roughs are Seaspray Paspalum.

Practice Facilities: The spacious practice facility, which features a dedicated short game area, has a beautiful sea view. The expansive nine-hole putting course was inspired by the famed Himalayas putting course in St. Andrews, Scotland.

Attractions & Amenities: Villa del Palmar takes full advantage of the region's unique beauty, authentic culture, quiet beaches, scenic vistas, rich history and natural habitats. The resort offers guest access to unparalleled sporting opportunities, including world-class fishing, hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding, swimming, paddle boarding, kayaking and whale watching. Complimentary shuttle service enables guests to explore historic Loreto and visit the 1697 mission that made the town famous. The area is also known for its wildlife, including the 900 species of fish off the coast and in an area that has been declared a World Heritage Site. Hotel perks include a spa and fitness center, salsa dance lessons and movie nights for children.

Access: Alaska Airlines offers daily flights (two hours) from Los Angeles to the Islands of Loreto. Aero Calafia provides service from Tijuana and West Jet from Calgary, Canada.

The resort is located 20 miles south of Loreto and four hours north of La Paz, capital of Baja California Sur.
