No. 13 at the Robert Trent Jones, Jr. design at Arrowhead Golf Club.

Arrowhead Golf Club Repeats as Six-Time Award Winner In Magazine’s “Best Of Colorado Golf” Rankings for 2017

DALLAS, May 17, 2017 — Arrowhead Golf Club in Littleton, Colo., an Arcis Golf property, was ranked No. 1 golf club in three categories by Colorado Avid Golfer in the magazine’s 2017 CAG-GY Awards for the reader’s choice “Best in State.”

Arrowhead, a Robert Trent Jones Jr. design known for its majestic red rock formations and striking foothill views, earned a total of six “Best of Colorado Golf” honors in the Public and Resort division:

- No. 1 Best On-Course Views
- No. 1 Best Après Golf Experience
- No. 1 Best Par-3 Hole (No. 13)
- No. 2 Best Denver Region Course
- No. 3 Best Wildlife Experience
- Staff Pick for Best Service

“It is rewarding to be recognized by Colorado Avid Golfer for the excellent golf lifestyle experience Arrowhead Golf Club offers its guests,” said Steve Black, General Manager of Arrowhead

Golf Club. “These honors are a testament to our unwavering commitment to provide the best club experience in the region, in what is unquestionably among the most scenic golf courses in the country. And, I am very proud that our staff is recognized for service, which is the top priority at Arrowhead.”

Located 30 minutes south of Denver in Roxborough State Park, Arrowhead Golf Club opened in 1972. The par 70 plays among 300-million-year-old sandstone formations and giant boulders, which are visible from every hole.

The award-winning 13th hole is Arrowhead’s signature par 3, a steep downhill that measures 173 yards from the lengthiest of four distances (also 122, 133 and 171 yards). Wedged between two massive red rock formations, the hole plays over trees to a large green framed by a small pond behind it.

Throughout the clubhouse, banquet room and outdoor pavilion, spectacular views make the facility one of the area’s top venues for golf, social events and weddings.

Colorado Avid Golfer is the leading golf lifestyle publication in the Rockies. The 15th annual CAGGY awards for the Best of Colorado Golf were determined by a record 5,540 online votes. Facilities were divided into two categories (Private, Public and Resort), with voting also done for Instruction and Travel Destinations. The CAGGY awards can be viewed in the Spring Edition of the magazine, as well as online at www.coloradoavidgolfer.com.
