

STAY & PLAY FOUR NIGHTS AT FOUR SEASONS RESORT LANAI, AND FIFTH NIGHT IS ON THE HOUSE

Package Ideal for Golfers Who Can Play Extra Round on Nicklaus Course

LANAI, HI Oct. 11, 2017 – With so much to experience on the 90,000-acre island of Lanai, Four Seasons Resort Lanai's Stay Longer – Fifth Night Complimentary offer affords guests an extra day in an exotic paradise to ensure they experience everything the island offers. That's good news for all vacationers, especially golfers who have a bonus day to play another round on the Signature Jack Nicklaus Manele Golf Course with its 18 stunning ocean-view holes.

The complimentary fifth night is available with every four consecutive paid nights. Available now (with blackout dates from Nov. 17-23), the package may be booked back to back. Rates are based on the resort's best available room rate for the dates selected.

Situated on Lanai's southern coast, Four Seasons Resort Lanai offers a gateway to an unspoiled, exotic Hawaiian paradise. Stay in one of 213 guestrooms and suites, savor exquisite cuisine in the signature ONE FORTY restaurant or NOBU LANAI, and enjoy a variety of complimentary daily activities. Play golf, ace your tennis game on Plexipave or Har-Tru green clay courts, lounge by the pool or beach, shop in luxury retail boutiques, or simply relax in the spa.

Adventure on Lanai includes an unmatched diversity of activities outside the resort: horseback riding, guided Polaris off-road tours, hiking and biking on land. The Resort's Adventure Center rents 4x4 jeeps to explore the island's distinctive landscapes, to visit the charming plantation town of Lanai City or beachcomb some of Hawaii's most pristine sands. Take to the air for helicopter journeys around Lanai and Maui Nui or day trips to Oahu and the Big Island. Or learn to fly a plane with a series of flight lessons covering take off, landing, and cruising. Dive into the blue sea with snorkel sails and scuba adventures, set off on a sunset sail, or book a private excursion for a customized ocean voyage.
