Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi Makes Golf More Fun, More Accessible To All Guests

LĀNAʻI, HAWAII, February 27, 2018 – Golfers the world over know that the Jack Nicklaus-designed Manele Golf Course at the Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi is one of the world’s most striking venues for the game, offering beauty, challenge, and fun in a true island paradise.

But beyond the traditional 18 holes, resort guests are treated to golf options sure to enchant non-players, newbies, and veterans alike.

Each Wednesday at 3 p.m., the Manele practice range transforms into “Mini Manele,” a six-hole, par-3 course that’s a uniquely enjoyable way to take a walk, listen to music, and ogle Hu-lopo’e Bay. And, oh yeah, have fun hitting shots to holes as short as 30 yards and no more than 90 yards. “Mini Manele” is complimentary to resort guests, with rental clubs and a logo golf ball included in the experience.

On Thursdays, the complimentary nine-hole “Manager’s Scramble” is hosted by a member of the Four Seasons Resort management with teams formed upon arrival. The shotgun start goes off at 3 p.m., with complimentary rental clubs available.

Friday's popular Sunset Nine Tour is a scenic swing along the course's signature "Ocean 9" holes, made even more exciting thanks to cocktails and the chance to win prizes by hitting the green at Manele's famous par-3 12th hole. The casual caper starts at 5pm, for $50 per person, limited to 10 guests per tour.

Guests can play the Sunset Nine every day of the week after 3 p.m. in the company of a specialty cocktail—served at check in, delivered on course, or poured after the round—for $195 per person. Complimentary rental clubs are available.

Youngsters are encouraged to join the fun as "Juniors Play Free": Guests 17 and younger play the Manele Course free when with a paid adult any day after noon. Complimentary rental clubs are available. The course also now features motorized Golf Boards that "surf the earth"; rental fee is $35.

Recently named Best Hotel in the USA by U.S. News & World Report, Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi features 213 guestrooms and suites in a series of low-rise buildings spread along the Pacific coastline and immersed in Hawaiian botanical gardens, providing a private residential experience. Additional facilities include the signature ONE FORTY restaurant, Malibu Farm, NOBU LANAI, a spa and wellness program, variety of complimentary activities, luxury retail boutiques, and tennis.
