NEW SLOPE-VIEW DINING OPTIONS SATISFY APPETITES AT WINTERGREEN RESORT

WINTERGREEN, Va. (Feb. 6, 2018) — Skiing and boarding can work up an appetite, so Wintergreen Resort has spruced up its snow-season dining experiences to satisfy the hungriest athletes on the slopes. Fresh menu concepts, paired with local craft breweries and hard cider specialties, along with popular entertainment are part of the expanded lineup of features – and everything on the menus includes breathtaking views of the slopes.

New members of Wintergreen’s culinary staff, Michael Hammes, director of food and beverage, and executive chef Chris Jones, have quickly put their personal creative touches to work for guest and member enjoyment.

The Copper Mine Bistro’s daily celebration of breakfast now includes more homemade comfort items such as Steak Philly Quiche, Chorizo Hash, Bacon and Fresh Mozzarella Grits Casserole, Peaches and Cream Monkey Bread, Skillet Apple Pie, and freshly baked pastries invitingly presented on a mouthwatering groaning board.

Devils Grill has unveiled a hand-crafted, Farm to Table menu that focuses on shared plates, which The Edge features an entirely new winter season menu and continues to grow its live music programming.

Checkerberry Cabin, at the base of the Blue Ridge Express chairlift, is freshly remodeled with a revamped menu and an array of popular additions such as tacos and BBQ dishes to savor while enjoying the live blues bands on stage.

Pryor’s Court, just off the Blue Ridge Terrace, was converted into a casual food-court setting, where the variety of options includes pizza, burgers, chili, and soups.

The Lookout has a refreshed menu featuring more Italian specialties, including very popular personal pizzas. Conveniently located near Discovery Ridge and The Plunge, The Lookout is a favorite spot to enjoy hot chocolate and sweet treats, as well.

Tasty beverages bolster the Wintergreen experience, as well, with the “Tap Takeover” by local craft breweries and cideries rotating each “Thirsty Thursday” at Checkerberry Cabin. Adding to the “like a local” vibe will be live performances by local musicians and DJs.

Wintergreen Resort is an ideal getaway for families, couples, and groups of friends any season of the year. Accommodations range from villa-style condominiums and nine-bedroom rental homes, to studio suites. Comfortable living areas, most with fireplaces, are available year-round, many with a balcony or viewing deck.
