One of only 11 golf resorts in the country to earn the prestigious Platinum Medal from GOLF Magazine, Reynolds Lake Oconee is among the most exciting golf experiences in the country. The collection of world-class designs features Great Waters (a Jack Nicklaus Signature Design currently under renovation), The National (Tom Fazio) and The Oconee (Rees Jones), as well as The Landing and The Preserve (both by the legendary Bob Cupp) and The Creek Club (Jim Engh), a private course normally open only to Reynolds members.

The Village at Lake Club Pointe condominiums provide spectacular golf, lake and woodland views. These fully-equipped residences are located near The Ritz-Carlton, The Lake Club Marina, and Tennis Center, and provide easy access to miles of walking trails and gracious outdoor living spaces from which to take in the beautiful views.

The Reynolds Kingdom of Golf presented by TaylorMade, is golf's premier full-game improvement experience. It features the Gears Golf system, clubs built at the onsite TaylorMade Tour Trailer, two fully enclosed hitting bays, three covered and heated hitting areas, TrackMan 4 launch monitors, and high-speed Ximea cameras.

Besides the unforgettable golf experience, Lake Oconee's 19,000 acres and 374 miles of shoreline along Georgia's second largest lake provide fishing, swimming, boating, camping, picnicking, and water skiing. Other amenities include four full-service marinas and an award-winning tennis center, making it no surprise that Reynolds Lake Oconee is one of the Southeast's most popular vacation destinations.
