THE SEA PINES RESORT GIVES GOLFERS THE TOUR-PRO EXPERIENCE

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (April 25, 2019) – The world’s best players from the PGA Tour have left Hilton Head Island and the 2019 RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing, played at the world-famous Harbour Town Golf Links, is in the books.

Now, the island’s great courses at The Sea Pines Resort are ready to challenge golfers.

Take it from the pros: There’s no better way to tee it up and stay in style than with the “Play Where The Pros Play” golf package offered by The Sea Pines Resort – which includes taking their own shot at Harbour Town.

The golf package includes one round of golf per guest on the island’s three top-ranked courses: Harbour Town and Heron Point, both designed by Pete Dye, as well as Atlantic Dunes, designed by Davis Love III, a five-time RBC Heritage winner. True diehards can enjoy complimentary afternoon replays on Heron Point and Atlantic Dunes (cart fee not included).

Accommodations range from the island’s premier hotel, The Inn & Club at Harbour Town, as well as luxurious private homes, Beach Villas, and Golf Villas of virtually every shape and size, with room for 2 to 12.

The Inn & Club is a Forbes Four-Star, AAA Four-Diamond boutique hotel with the luxury and convenience of guest rooms and a Fairway Suite overlooking the first tee of Harbour Town Golf Links. The Inn is ranked No. 12 on the “Best Hotels in the USA” by U.S. World & News Report.

Three-night/four-day packages start at $255 (per player/per night) for Villa accommodations and $329 (per player, per night) for The Inn. Rates are valid through October 2019. (Note: Harbour Town Golf Links requires one forecaddie per tee time. Forecaddie services are included in the rate, however a recommended gratuity of $30 per person is not included.)
