While yellowtail can be found in the waters year-round, summer fishing in the Sea of Cortez adds the fun of catching migratory species such as striped and blue marlin, dorado, sailfish, roosterfish, and sierra, plus the possibility of wahoo and yellowfin tuna.

The immediate popularity of the golf course, coupled with the incredible sport fishing in Loreto, were key factors in the Loreto property being named 2018 Leading Resort in Mexico and

Central America and 2018 Best Beach Resort in Mexico by the World Travel Awards, as well as recognized for excellence in Condé Nast Traveler's 2018 Readers' Choice Awards as one of the "Top Resorts in Western Mexico."

The 4,447-acre resort sits on a sprawling stretch of white-sand beach along Danzante Bay, where the natural habitat includes 900 species of fish. In addition to golf and fishing, resort guests can enjoy swimming, snorkeling, paddle boarding, kayaking, and whale watching. In addition to championship golf and the luxurious Sabila Spa, the resort features six swimming pools, tennis courts, miles of well-marked hiking trails, and glass-bottomed kayaks.
