MULLIGAN'S

White Bluff

MULLIGAN'S RESTAURANT OPENS AT WHITE BLUFF RESORT Inspired by St. Andrews, Transformed Eatery Serves Lunch, Dinner Daily—Plus Panoramic Golf Course Views

Whitney, Texas (July 29, 2019) – After a total renovation, Mulligan's restaurant has opened inside the White Bluff Resort clubhouse at the 3,450-acre golf resort community near the shores of Lake Whitney. It's already become the favorite of locals and guests.

With St. Andrews, Scotland, as its inspiration, the restaurant boasts panoramic views of one of the resort's golf courses, the New Course, from floor-to-ceiling windows. Servers wear the St. Andrews tartan plaid and photos from "the home of golf" adorn the walls. A welcoming Texas limestone fireplace and tartan sofa provide a cozy cocktail nook while the open-air porch offers a great place to compare post-golf scorecards.

The hand-crafted, burlwood bar serves a variety of craft beers, wines, and specialty cocktails. The food menu features a wide array of appetizers, sandwiches, salads, and entrees. Additional daily specials also are offered and a Sunday brunch will be added soon.

In addition to the total interior renovation and culinary transition, the clubhouse's entrance and exterior landscaping were completely renovated, as was the state-of-the-art kitchen.

Mulligan's is currently open to the public, residents, and golfers, Thursday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., serving lunch and dinner, and on Sundays from 10 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. When the New Course reopens on August 31, the days and hours of operation will expand to accommodate golfers.

Both of White Bluff's challenging golf courses – the Old and the New – will re-open by fall following renovation of all greens and bunkers. Wrapped along the shores of Lake Whitney, the courses were designed by 13-time PGA Tour winner Bruce Lietzke: The Old Course showcases significant elevation changes and views of the Texas hillsides; The New Course has water on 16 of 18 holes.

Arcis Advantage, the management division of Dallas-based Arcis Golf, is managing White Bluff. Arcis Golf now owns or manages 18 clubs in Texas and is the second-largest owner and operator of golf facilities in the United States, with a presence in 14 states from coast to coast.
